VOLUME TWENTY FOUR

PUBLISHED BY THE JUNIOR CLASS
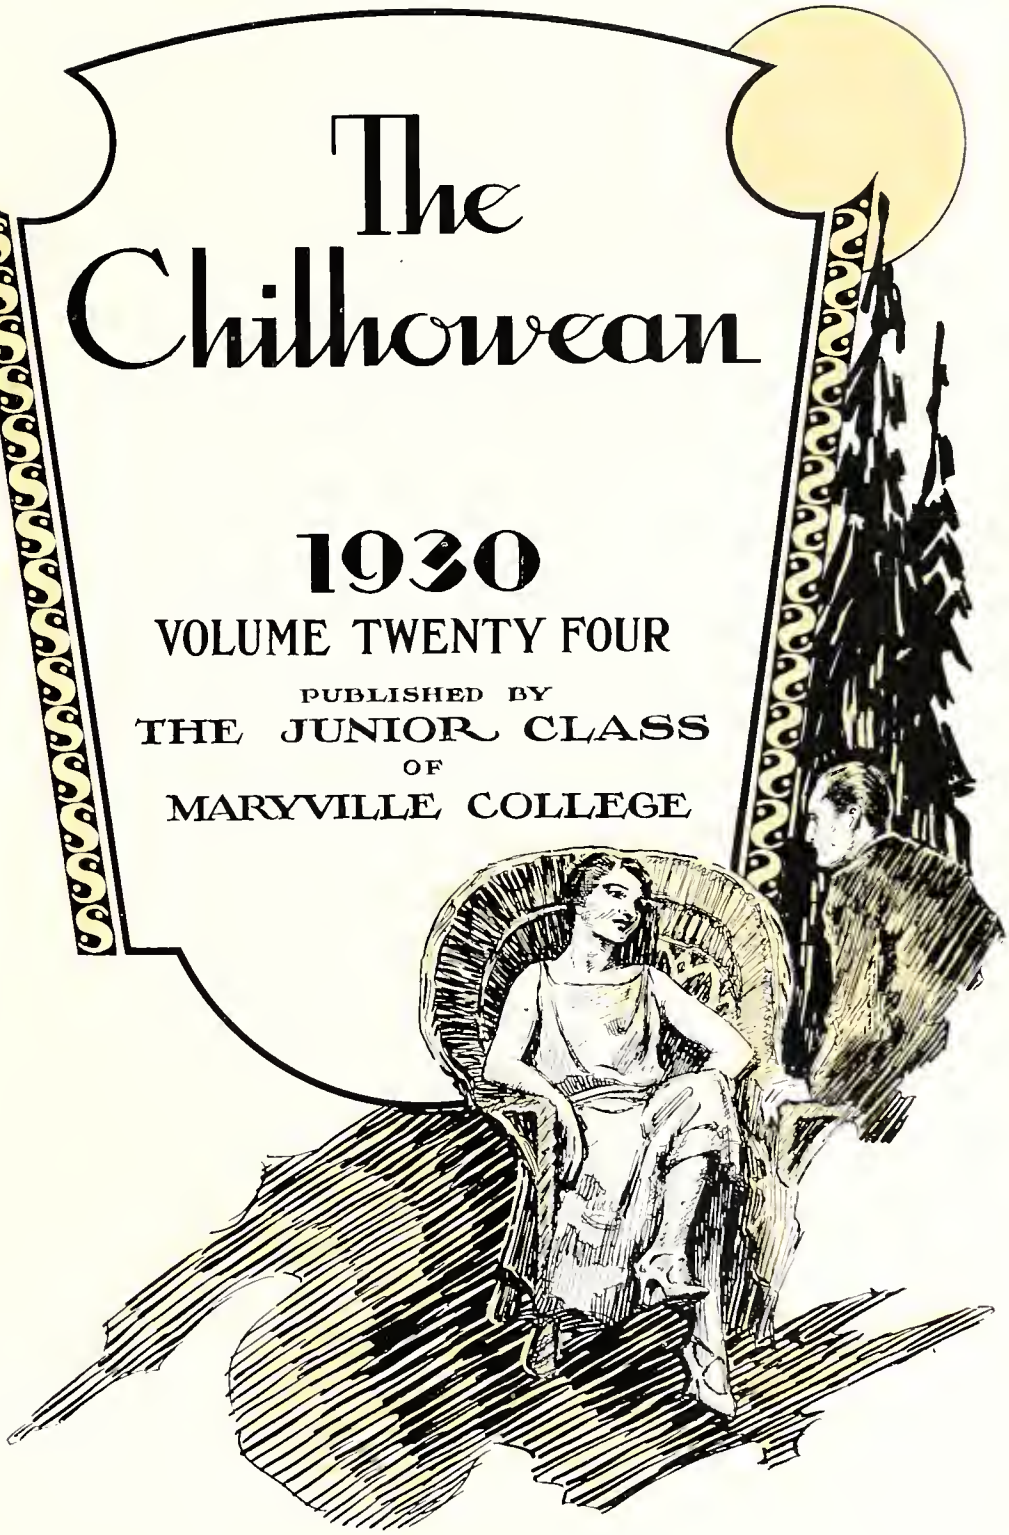
OF
MARYVILLE COLLEGE



Dedication

TO those who have been true to each other, loyal to our college, friendly and sympathetic with the students, to—

MR. and MRS. VERTON QUEENER,

members of our faculty, whose marriage followed many happy hours of "Moonshining" here on College Hill, we dedicate this volume of the Chilhowean.

MR. and MRS. VERTON QUEENER

Foreword

MARYVILLE COLLEGE is a world within itself—a world devoid of sham and pretense; a "world withdrawn from public haunt" where one may search undisturbed after the great truths; a world with its own peculiar but lovable customs. Realizing the significant role "Moonshining" plays in that world, we have made this activity our theme, and if it serves to recall a fond reminiscence or to brighten a pleasant recognition; if it helps in any way to add to the glory of Maryville, our purpose will have been fulfilled.

MOONLIGHT AND MOONSHINE

They tell me that the theme and motive of The Chilhowean of 1930 is "Moonshine." Even a veteran Maryvillian feels a certain indefinable awe overcoming him when he is asked to deal, even briefly with so momentous a theme!

Even moonlight may bring a real thrill to a person. For example, there is the moonlight illuminating the storied Acropolis, at Athens, Greece. We secured cards of admission to the Acropolis, on a night of the full moon, to see that sacred spot by the bewitching magic of Grecian moonlight. And what glorious thrills came to us in that "pale moonlight" as we walked through the gloomy Parthenon; and then across where the gold and ivory statue of Athena Promachos once stood; and on by the ghostly ruins of the Erechtheion. And what mysterious thrills tingled in our hearts when, looking heavenward, we basked in the moonbeams that sifted down from Selene, the goddess of the Moon, upon whose face the Greeks gazed with worshipful reverence from this very hilltop two and three millenniums ago, just as we were doing on this holy night of ours.

But approach our theme a little closer yet. On many vacation occasions the writer and his family spent several glorious weeks in camp by Maple Spring on the Chilhowee Mountains; and there by day or by night they were bathed in the golden sunlight and the silvery moonlight that God pours out upon His everlasting hills. Ah! who can adequately portray the glories of moonlight on "Chilhowee's lofty mountains?"

But even moonlight on Chilhowee is, after all, by no means as thrilling as is moonshine on College hill. To prove the truth of this sweeping and catagorical statement, all that is necessary is an appeal to the opinion and testimony of any old Maryville student.

But why desecrate by inadequacy of treatment so sacred a subject as is moonshine at Maryville, when everyone knows that justice can never be done to so transcendent a theme. The saddest hour in a Maryvillian's life comes at the close of his last commencement day. As I approached my dormitory room at the moonlight close of the day of my graduation, my heart paid its involuntary and necessary tribute to moonshine by immeasurable sorrow that it was all over with me, that the romance and the glory of college moonshining were gone from me, presumably for evermore. Sic transit gloria mundi!

But the supreme tribute that hundreds of old Maryville College men and women have paid to the glories of moonshine was paid when, sooner or later, they sought out the one that moonshined with them in college days, and, with the efficient help of an obsequious county court clerk and a kindly clergyman, they organized a life-partnership concern where moonshining might go on forever!

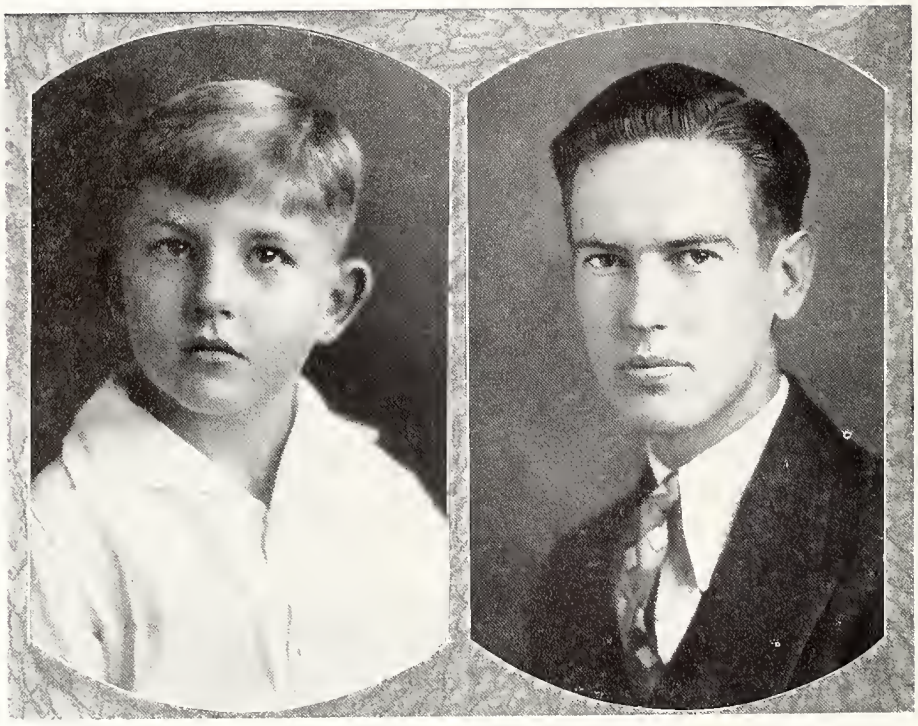
SENIORS



ROSS HONAKER

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

This intelligent young man has been chosen as the Class Mascot, and is the son of Coach and Mrs. Lombe S. Honaker. He is a chip off the old block in that he evidences athletic interests and talents. We are sure that in future years he will be a success which will make the Class of '30 proud of him. Ross, we wish you much joy and happiness in the game of life. May you always be on the winning team.

FRANK EDWARD BAKER, PRESIDENT

SCHOOLFIELD, VIRGINIA

ALPHA SIGMA

Some people think that Lady Luck smiled when Frank was born, but we're of the opinion that his success in work and play is due to his own brilliant mind and will to work. Incidentally, Frank is always a model of what the well-dressed college man should wear. And only look at his honors!

EARL WINSTON BLAZER, Secretary

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

ALPHA SIGMA

Freshman girl: "Who is that awfully good-looking boy with the black, wavy hair, who looks like a tailor's model or an Arrow Collar ad?"

Anyone else: "Why, that's Earl Blazer, of course—and let me tell you, freshman, looks isn't all that boy has—he has sense enough to major in English (it takes a lot, too!) and he is one of Maryville's renowned baseball players. And he moonshines, too—just as a side-line!"

Secretary Senior Class (4); Recording Secretary Alpha Sigma (4); Business Manager Highland Echo (4); Athletic Board of Control (4); Captain Baseball (4).

RALPH WALTER CHERRY, Treasurer

Harriman, Tennessee

ALPHA SIGMA

Every class must have an athlete, and "Waldo" is the chiefest of them all. His absence next year will make a big difference on gridiron and court. His steady earnestness of play is characteristic of him in his campus associations. Fortunate are those who can hail him as friend.

HELEN WILSON PLANT, Editor

Nebo, North Carolina

BAINONIAN

Chic and charming—that's Helen. She reminds you of a slim, trim cedar tree. Helen's winning and lovable personality along with her ability have won for her a place in our hearts that no one else could fill. Bainonians remember her as their beloved and capable president.

VIRGINIA AMANDA PEARSON

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

We have a deep, unbounded and abiding respect for anyone who elects Chemistry as a major. Virginia has done just that and has had plenty of time left to take part in athletic events, and to form many lasting friendships.

Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (2, 3); Varsity Basketball (1, 2); Class Athletics (2, 3); Chemistry Club (3).

JOHN BAEHR TAGGART

GLASSBORO, NEW JERSEY

ALPHA SIGMA

John has shown an unusual variety of interests on College Hill. He has participated in athletic, scholastic, and religious activities, and has been very successful in each one. John tells us that he plans next year to go into business, opening a music store in McKenzie, Tennessee, but he refuses to explain the reasons for this decision.

ANDREW LINTON COULTER

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

ALPHA SIGMA

Luckily for the Seniors, Linton lives in town. None of us will ever forget the party at his home. Linton is one of our best history students as well as a superb tennis player, and he excels all others in that ancient Maryville Art—"Moonshining." Here's to you, Linton. We wish you much happiness.

Tennis Team (1, 2, 3).

FLORENCE ISABEL CANNON

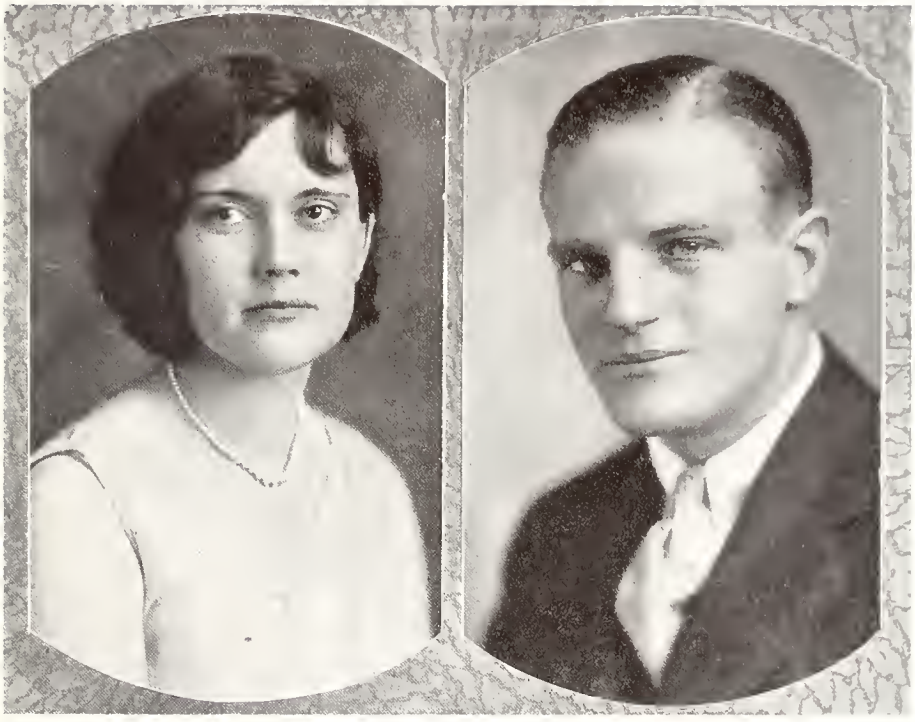
COVINGTON, GEORGIA

BAINONIAN

"Here is a sport, staunch and true,
The right thing we can always trust 'Izzy' to do."

Some people may have doubles, but not so with Isabel—she is the only "Izzy" in existence. When it comes to planning programs and parties, you can always depend on "Izzy" to make practical and original suggestions. She has been a good student, loyal to her friends, and a faithful worker, being particularly gifted in the art of "Moonshining."

Georgia Club (1, 2, 4); Secretary Bainonian (2); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (2); Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (2, 4); Class Vice-President (3); Student Council (4); Tennis Team (3); Writers' Work Shop (4).



MARY ERLINE JONES

HUNTLAND, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

No one would ever forget Erline after looking into her pretty brown eyes. She is a sweet, quiet girl, and a conscientious student. She is very industrious, which is a worthwhile asset. Erline, may success and prosperity crown all your efforts, and may you always keep your cheerful disposition.

Middle Tennessee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (4).

EDWIN HEMPHILL OSBORNE

GREENLAWN, NEW YORK

ALPHA SIGMA

The sandy hue of his hair denotes a Slav; the sturdy mold of his limbs would indicate a Teuton; and the cold, frigid glint of his eyes recalls an Icelander. But to hear him speak is to fancy him a creature divine, else why the soft glow of rapture on the countenances of his ladies fair?

JAMES CUYLER ANDERSON

CHERRY TREE, PENNSYLVANIA

ALPHA SIGMA

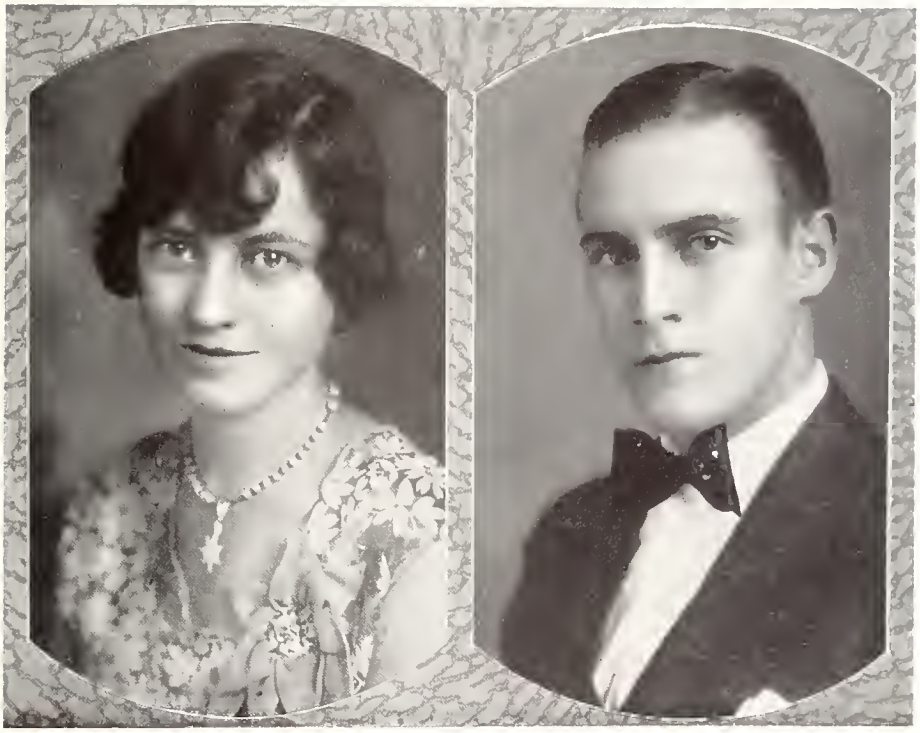
Many have marveled that this new student betrayed no symptoms of "greenness." Of course the old-timers and the faculty know that Jimmie is no yearling, and consequently were not surprised when he started right off promulgating the old "Maryville spirit." As a student and as a good fellow, he has been very popular this year.

ERLINE GERTRUDE DAVIDSON

ALCOA, TENNESSEE

Erline's studious, quiet, unobtrusive, and even-tempered manner makes her well liked by everyone. She has a genuine interest in Spanish, and we hope she will soon realize a real "Castle in Spain." Consideration for others, a congenial personality, and the ability to do things in an easy, graceful manner speak well for her future. In parting, may we say, "adois, amiga, buena venture!"

Home Economics Club.



RUTH AGNES BUCHANAN

NAGOYA, JAPAN

BAINONIAN

When you are in far off Japan look Ruth up. That's where she hails from, and there she is returning. But we're very glad she left to come to Maryville. An earnest worker, a willing helper, she is always an inspiration to those who know her.

Graduate Assembly Bible Training School; Vice-President Bainonian (4); Y. W. C. A. JOHN BEN PECTOL

INDIAN SPRINGS, TENNESSEE

ALPHA SIGMA

Yes, Indian Springs is only a wide place in the road, but many are the stories which we read of the great men of our country who were born in log cabins in unknown places. Quiet and modest, with the poise of a professional hobo in a pie pantry, he pursues the even tenor of his way, an earnest worker, loyal to his friends. "Peck's" amiability, good humor, keen wit, and unassuming manner will ever be remembered by his college friends.

Y. M. C. A. Treasurer (4); Lamar Loan Library and Book Room Assistant (1, 2, 3, 4); Assistant Recording Secretary Alpha Sigma (3), Critic (2, 3), Vice-President (4).

STEWART HENRY BUTTEN

BELFAST, IRELAND

ALPHA SIGMA

If an infinite capacity for taking pains is the hallmark of genius, then Stewart is a genius, for he is patiently and persistently industrious. One would likewise expect to find in Stewart, as a Son of Old Erin, an abundancee of wit and merry humor—and one is not disappointed.

HELEN BERNIECE GLEASON

OSBORN, OHIO

BAINONIAN

Helen Gleason is the girl who makes the A's, but more than that she's the girl who is delightfully human and understanding. Some day we may hear of Helen as a musical composer or a great singer, for she's talented, too. Helen is genuine clear through, the kind of friend and associate that makes you better and happier for having known her.

MARJORIE LOUISE NELSON

CLAYTON, NEW JERSEY

THETA EPSILON

Marjorie has always been accepted as one of the fairest and most attractive members of the Class of '30. She has been a faithful worker, especially for Theta, and well deserves the high honor which the Society has paid her. Marjorie's classmates at Maryville will always remember her as a sincere friend and a good sport.

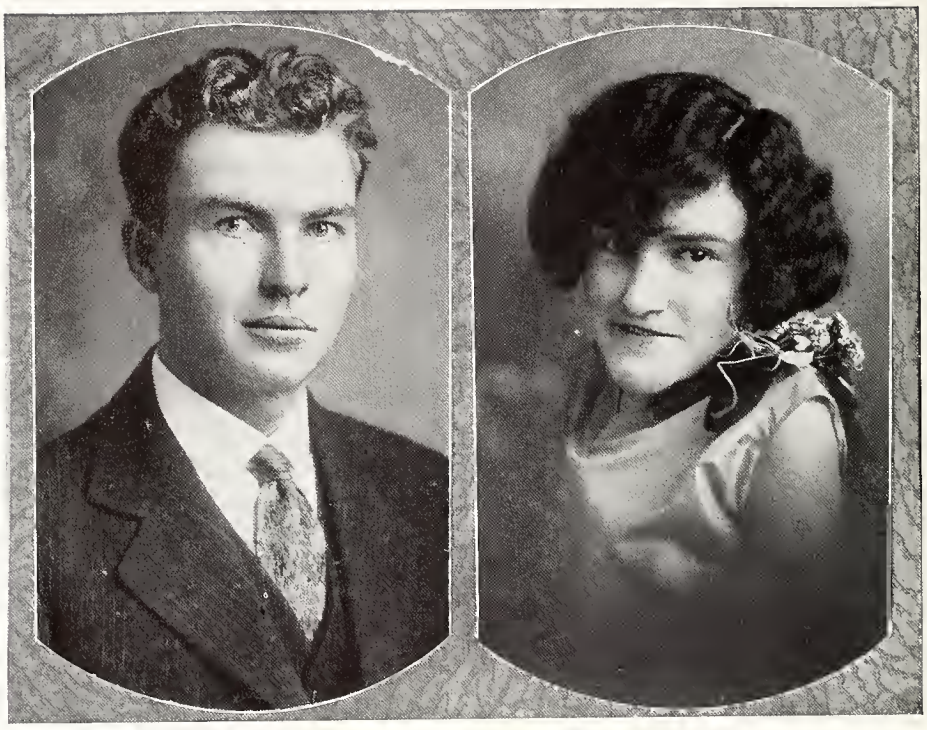
ALTON DAVIS PARTEE

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

ALPHA SIGMA

Partee is a perfect gentleman and that's saying a lot. His neat appearance and his good humored interest in other people make him a favorite in any crowd. He has marked business ability, and we are confident that he has the kind of personality which will make a success in the medical profession.

University of New Mexico (1); Pre-Medical Club (2, 3, 4), Secretary (3), President (4); Alpha Sigma Treasurer (4); Spanish Club (2, 3, 4); History Club (4); Theta Epsilon Mid-Winter (4).



GORDON McCONNELL MISER

FRIENDSVILLE, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

Gordon seems early to have learned the value of silence for he is not given to verbosity. However, when he does talk, people prick up their ears and take notice. You would have to go far to find a man more dependable than he.

Pre-Medical Club (3, 4); East Tennessee Club (4); Friendsville Club (4), President (4); Biology Assistant (3, 4); Class Football (4).

ELIZABETH PEARL BOWMAN

LAFOLLETTE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Pearl has put us all to shame by her habitual good humor and sunny disposition. Even if the weather is all wrong and the water is cold, Pearl still smiles. She has been an exceptionally good student and deserves our highest praise, esteem and love. Here's wishing you all the happiness life holds.

Chemistry Club (2); Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4); East Tennessee Club (4).

MARGARET ADAMS MEVIS

ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA

THETA EPSILON

This blond started work at Maryville by becoming an ardent debater for the freshman class, and we give her thanks for such a good push in our baby days. Now, at the end of the journey, we find her still inclined along literary lines, and we wish her much success in whatever she undertakes.

Student Council (1, 2); Florida Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Secretary-Treasurer (1); Secretary Theta Epsilon (2), Critic (4), Vice-President (4); Pi Kappa Delta (1, 2, 3, 4), Treasurer (3); Freshman Debate (1); Varsity Debate (2, 3); Maryville College Players (3); Theta Epsilon Mid-Winter (2, 3, 4); Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (2, 3); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4); Inter-Racial Commission (3, 4); Daisy Chain (3); Writers' Work Shop (3, 4); Graduate in Expression (4).

GLENN MAURICE CROSS

NEWTON, OHIO

ALPHA SIGMA

Glenn likes to be known as a hard-boiled guy, but privately, we think he's a good fellow well met, a grand sport, and lots of fun! And we know that he is witty, clever, and wise! (Usually).

Otterbein, Ohio State University (1, 2); Buckeye Club (3), President (3); Student Council (3); Program Secretary Alpha Sigma (4), Censor (4); Managing Editor Highland Echo (3); Spanish Club (3, 4); Writers' Work Shop (3, 4); Class Athletics (3, 4); Alpha Sigma Mid-Winter (4).

JAHLEEL BRENTON STEARNS

CALDWELL, NEW JERSEY

ALPHA SIGMA

Someone heard Brent say that he certainly enjoyed the Sunday night "Whisper" service. Many a dull moment has committed suicide when Brent appeared upon the scene. Brent, old boy, we want you to know that we thoroughly appreciate all your fun, and may you continue to spread happiness around the world and back again.

IMOGENE CROWLEY

ALCOA, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Yes, Imogene is the girl with the attractive, friendly smile. A good sport, always cheerful, and with a happy disposition, she is very companionable. Perhaps the thing she enjoys most is tennis, for she is quite athletic. She has excelled in sports as well as in many other departments of college life. Imogene, we wish you the best of luck.

Tennis Championship (3); Tennis Team (1, 2, 3); Class Basketball (2); Class Soccer (2); Spanish Club (2); History Club (4).

MARY KATHERINE COPELAND

CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Kitty is one of the most popular members of our class, and well deserves to be, for she is endowed with an unusually attractive personality. A real lady, she shows an interest in her friends and a warmth of feeling for them which commands our admiration. Kitty, we wish you the best of happiness and success.

Chattanooga Club (1, 2, 3, 4).

JOSEPH POLK McCLELLAN

ELKVIEW, PENNSYLVANIA

ALPHA SIGMA

It would be difficult to find anyone who possesses the capabilities that Joe does and still refrains from making an ostentatious display of them. No one has a more marked degree of sportsmanship, a greater sense of loyalty, or a more genuine modesty than Joe. We wish that Maryville were blessed with more men of Joe's type. We need them.

ARCHIE DANIEL SMITH

ISLE OF PINES, CUBA

No one calls him Archie, and that in itself is a compliment. For years and years "Boone" has been roaming about the campus in search of historical facts. For the exact date of any occurrence during the past ten or fifteen years, ask this sweet zephyr from the Isle of Pines. He is quietly unassuming, however, and we admire him for it.

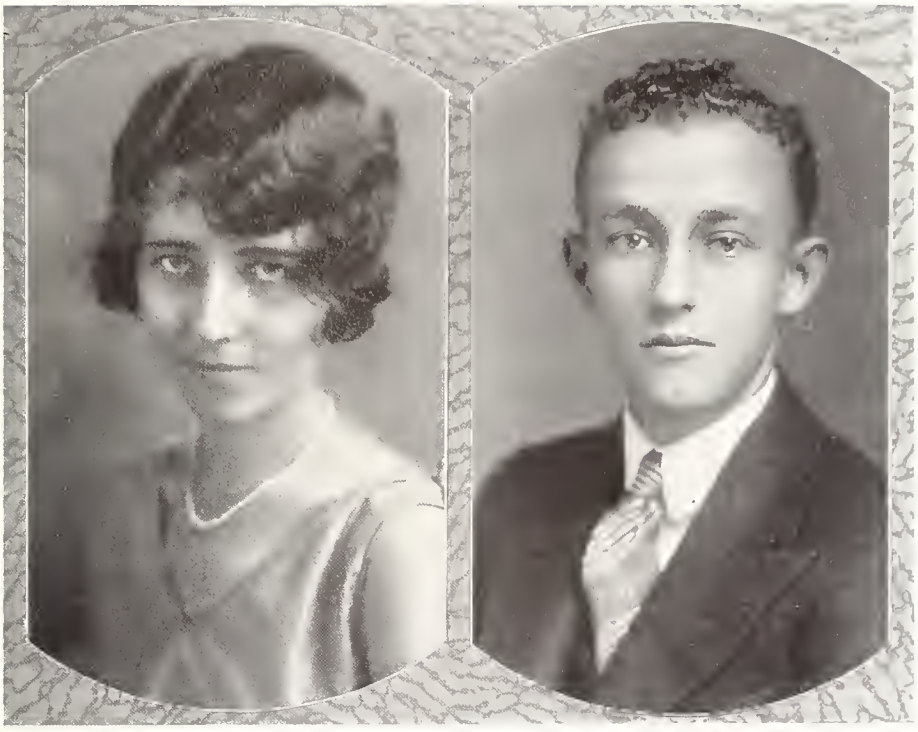
CLARA LEE DALTON

CELINA, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Clara's chief interests are men and science, and she gets along quiet well with either or both. She has been Biology Assistant for three years and all who have been so fortunate as to be in her section have found her always smiling and having plenty of ability mingled with a very genial personality.

Biology Assistant (2, 3, 4); Delegate State Student Volunteer Conference (2); Secretary Bainonian (4); Middle Tennessee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Vice-President (4); Honor Roll (1).



ETHEL MARION JOHNSON

McKenzie, Tennessee

BAINONIAN

Marion is a girl who is sure to achieve greatness in the world, for she has ability, ambition, and a charming personality. She has done exceedingly well—both in music and her scholastic duties. Always Marion has been a leader in her class, full of pep, and ready for any work which is at hand. Marion also holds an enviable "Moonshine" record. In all, "Ossie" is a girl whom anyone would be proud to term as a friend.

Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (2, 4); Student Council (1, 3); Class Vice-President (2); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (3); Pep Committee (3); Graduate in Piano (2); Post-Graduate in Piano (3); Writers' Work Shop (4); Program Secretary Bainonian (4), President (4).

EDWARD CLYDE CROW

Dickson, Tennessee

ATHENIAN

Little of stature, Brute is the Zacchaeus of our class, and like him, Brute lets nothing, not even his size, keep him from accomplishing big things. He has more energy, pep, and capability than most of the big folks, as shown by the positions he has held. Brute, with his jolly disposition, has been a priceless possession of the Class of '30.

Pi Upsilon (1, 2, 3, 4), Secretary-Treasurer (3), Vice-President (4); Manager Baseball (3); Manager Football (4); "M" Club (3, 4); Pep Committee (3); Class Baseball (2, 3, 4); Middle Tennessee Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Treasurer (4); Class Editor (3); Bainonian Mid-Winter (4); Athenian Critic (4); P. K. Club President (2).

NICHOLAS STEPHEN WHITE

MANSFIELD, OHIO

ALPHA SIGMA

Nick has an unusual way of letting people know he is around—one of those "grin, and the world grins with you" expressions. "A successful business man of tomorrow" is probably what the prophet would say, because all of his characteristics, his pep, and his personality point that way. The Class of '30 shall long remember the "Yankee."

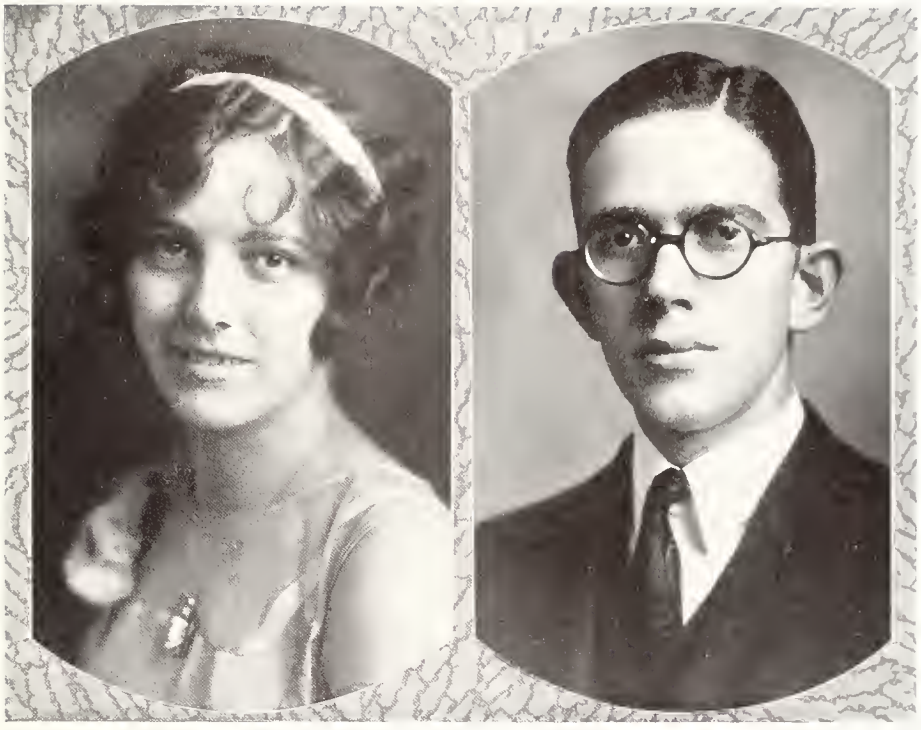
ANITA GHIGO

VALDESE, NORTH CAROLINA

BAINONIAN

We were particularly fortunate in being able to welcome Anita into our ranks for the last lap of our journey. Even during our short acquaintance we have discovered in her a charm of personality and a capability which we admire greatly. Music and French are "Nita's" specialties. Her disposition leads us to say truly that happy are those who will have her for an instructor.

Mitchell College (1, 2); Flora McDonald (3); French Club (4), Editor (4); North Carolina Club (4).



ELEANOR WILHELMINA KUHLMAN

CINCINNATI, OHIO

BAINONIAN

Eleanor gets things done without saying much about them. Shall we say she is modest? Perhaps. But real abilities will out, and we haven't failed to notice Eleanor's. She enjoys three things specially: being an accomplished singer, a business woman, and having a jolly good time. The Vesper Choir will certainly miss its most talented soloist next year.

University of Cincinnati (1, 2); Girls' Glee Club (3), Vice-President (4); Vesper Choir (3, 4); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet Music Chairman (4); Bainonian Program Secretary (3); Ohio Club (3, 4); Lambda Tau Psi (4); Spanish Club (3, 4).

STANLEY GAYLORD McCOOL

CLAYTON, NEW JERSEY

ATHENIAN

It was a fortunate day for Maryville when Stanley forsook the paths and byroads of New Jersey to join the Class of '30. During his four years here, he has taken part very successfully in a wide range of activities. We are just hoping that New Jersey will send Maryville someone who can take this man's place.

Class Vice-President (1), Treasurer (2); Vesper Choir (1, 2, 3); Triangle Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Treasurer (3), Vice-President (4); Pre-Medical Club (1, 2, 3, 4), President (3); Chemistry Club (2, 3, 4), Program Secretary (4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4), Business Manager (4); P. K. Club (1); Chemistry Assistant (2, 3, 4); Athenian Mid-Winter (2, 3); College Players (4); Lambda Tau Psi (4); Bainonian Mid-Winter (4).

R. OAKEY BIGGS

DANVILLE, VIRGINIA

ALPHA SIGMA

It has never been definitely decided just what is the source of Oakey's charm over the fair sex. Some say it's his million-dollar smile, others attribute it to his military bearing, still others to the fact that he drives his own car. Anyway, Oakey has proven to us that he gets along well with everyone.

ELLEN ROGERS McCULLOCH

GADSDEN, ALABAMA

BAINONIAN

Ellen is one of whom we can really say that "still water runs deep." To really know her is to love her. Our regret is that she was unable to be with us both semesters this year. We know Ellen will succeed in her Home Economics career, and we wish her happiness in her success.

WILLIE NELL HAROLD

MIDDLETOWN, OHIO

BAINONIAN

Willie Nell has the rare sympathy and kindliness that the world so needs. She is always ready and willing to do the difficult task and do it with a smile. We are glad fate gave us Willie Nell as a member of the Class of '30.

JAMES HAYDEN LASTER

IRONDALE, ALABAMA

ATHENIAN

Hayden's contagious smile is famous on the campus and so is his technique in the campustry course known as "Moonshining," but these are not his only claims to fame; he's the orator who won the Bates Contest last year. We hardly need to add that Hayden is held in highest esteem by his fellow classmates.

ALLAN WHITNEY HERDMAN

BRIDGEPORT, CONNECTICUT

ALPHA SIGMA

"Bad language or abuse,
I never, never use."

Not many of us can use the English language fluently and correctly, but Allan does that and more, for he speaks French with the ease and blandness of a native Parisian. Aside from his linguistic abilities, Allan is an accomplished musician and is interested in many other things, not excepting "Moonshining."

RUTH HAZLETINE PEARSON

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

When you first see Ruth—you look again. And when you look again you ask your nearest friend for an introduction. And the nice part of it is that you are never disappointed. She is just as witty, and interesting, and charming as she looks. And they tell us that she makes A's in Home Economics—if that doesn't prove to you that she is brilliant—ask any Home Ec. student.

Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4); Maryville Club (4); Assistant in Home Economics (4).

MYRTLE EVELYN WHETSELL

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Myrtle is little troubled with the disease of worrying. She is always laughing or working, or both. As a student, she has applied herself diligently to her work, and has proved herself to be a veritable planet of energy. Myrtle's chief interest is in Biology, and her determination to excel assures us that in a few years her picture will hang next to Pasteur's and Koch's—that is, her portrait will. May fame and fortune come your way, Myrtle.

WILLIAM STINSON BARNARD

WOODBURY HEIGHTS, NEW JERSEY

ATHENIAN

This stalwart New Jersian is athletically inclined and especially enjoys playing golf and tennis. Sometimes he enjoys these more than others. This, we think, must be due to the good company he usually has—another athletically inclined person. Bill is the kind of friend we all like to have—true blue all the way through. Good luck, Bill.

CECIL McLEAN HARDISON

LEWISBURG, TENNESSEE

You've heard of big silent forces—Cecil is one of them. We have a deep admiration for his rich store of knowledge and common sense. The fact that he does not parade these possessions makes them all the more respected. Here's to the man who can capably rise to every occasion—a living example of the adage, "Actions speak louder than words."

HATTIE EVA HAMPTON

RUTHERFORDTON, NORTH CAROLINA

BAINONIAN

Eva has been with us only two years but in that time we have learned to appreciate her personality. She came to us from Mitchell College and brought with her a zest for really and truly living that never seems to wane. Eva is an accomplished student, and quite athletic. Eva, we're glad you came to Maryville.

EDITH GARST WOOLSEY

GREENEVILLE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Of all the A's distributed to students at Maryville, probably Edith has the most, and therefore we are proud to have had Edith as a member of the Class of '30. Her record represents Edith as a veritable store-house of knowledge, and we wish her success in passing it on to future generations.

JOHN ARTHUR DAVIS

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

J. D. is one of our college football heroes—and being tall, easy to look at and talk with, and having red, curly hair, he has become the idol of many a school girl's heart. Because of which—or in spite of which, we like him a great deal, and are proud of him as a member of our class.

MAURICE MELVIN CARPER

CHRISTIANSBURG, VIRGINIA

ATHENIAN

They surely grow them big up in Christiansburg, Virginia. It was a source of wonder to many last year how the 190 pounds could move around a track as fast as did Judge, but once he makes up his mind to get somewhere he's a hard man to stop.

JOHNNIE STEIN BENNETT

WINDER, GEORGIA

BAINONIAN

The charm and courtesy of the Old South—that's Johnnie. She reminds you of chivalry and southern plantations, and magnolia blossoms. She's the kind of girl you want to know better. Johnnie is also the Latin Student and we are reminded that it takes brains to get Latin. Yet for all her ability and charm she is so unassuming that we all love her.

RUTH LEE GREEN

WILMINGTON, DELAWARE

BAINONIAN

Ruth has all those "gifts of the Gods" that make one loved and successful. We feel that life holds many happy things in store for her. Ruth is an idealist who believes in translating ideals into deeds. She's a regular Spanish shark and some day we expect her to make the Class of '30 famous.

COMER DUREE FOWLER

MARTIN, GEORGIA

ATHENIAN

We can forgive Comer for waking us so early every morning because we all like him, and he is a sincere friend to all. His quiet unassuming manner and pleasant smile will be greatly missed on the Hill next year. Comer, our best wishes go with you throughout life.

RALPH DOSSER WADDELL

CHUCKEY, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

So great has become the notoriety induced by his marvelously extensive pedal appendages that the gentleman in question is now the recipient of the opprobrious sobriquet "Suitcase." He has yet another salient characteristic, however, which is the simple honesty that radiates from his rugged face. Here, indeed, is a man without guile.

Varsity Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4), Manager (3), Captain (4); Baseball Squad (1, 2); "M" Club (2, 3, 4).

REBA EDITH BURNS

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

A veritable class martyr! One of the first on the roll, Edith has borne the van of the attack on the part of the professors, but she has met the enemy successfully and saved us other poor mortals on many occasions. Edith doesn't believe in moping, and consequently wears a perpetual smile. May good luck ever pal around with you, Edith.

387 points in athletics (3).

GWENDOLYN VIOLET GREEN

WAVERLY, KENTUCKY

BAINONIAN

To say that all the children love Gwendolyn is the best recommendation she could have. She has done a wonderful work with the orphans, and has our greatest admiration for such splendidly directed services. Gwendolyn is the kind of person that can be depended upon, and we shall not soon forget our association with her.

MORGAN CLARENCE BIGGS

DANVILLE, VIRGINIA

ALPHA SIGMA

"Oh, Young Lochinvar has come out of the West, etc." Except that it's inappropriate, this might be applied to Morgan. You don't apply verse to Morgan, however; you apply prose, a good, robust paragraph or so with a few well-chosen interminglings of grunts and rumbles, and your work is done. Our work is done!

WILLIAM JAMES ELZEY

SEAFORD, DELAWARE

ATHENIAN

"Bill" hails from a little state; but he has a great big heart, which with his ever-ready sense of humor has won him many friends on College Hill. "Bill" is the kind of fellow that "sticks"—whether to a girl or a job—and we say that's the kind who will get places in this old world.

Vice-President French Club (4); French Club (2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (3).

FRANCES DONER CRABILL

ASHLAND, VIRGINIA

THETA EPSILON

If you don't know Frances, you've missed something in Maryville. She is conservative and dignified, as Seniors should be, but under all this is a lot of good common sense and a warmth of friendship and sympathy that never fails in time of need, as well as a jolly laugh for gayer times. Once a friend, always a friend.

JEANNETTE LOUISE SPAINHOUR

MORGANTON, NORTH CAROLINA

BAINONIAN

We regret that Jeannette has been with us only two years, and we realize what we have missed by not having her sooner. It is worth while to break through her reserve and really know her. We will always remember Jeannette as a girl of pleasing personality and of cheerful disposition.

Asheville Normal (1, 2); North Carolina Club (3, 4); Home Economics Club (3, 4), Vice-President (4); Art Club (3, 4).

ROBERT WALTON JONES

JENKINTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA

ATHENIAN

"Let Jonsey do it!" That one remark sums up "Bob" Jones. He is most versatile. A finished actor, a perfect stage manager, a faultless electrician, an active Y. M. C. A. worker. And best of all he gives service with a smile—and who doesn't like that?

Pi Kappa Delta (1, 2, 3, 4); Writers' Work Shop (4); Lambda Tau Psi (4); Class Treasurer (1); Class President (2).

JESSE PINDELL PEIRCE

PAOLI, PENNSYLVANIA

ATHENIAN

Jesse is a power behind the throne.—Oh, it doesn't matter what throne—maybe it was the Throne of Graustark, perhaps the Highland Echo throne, or the Chilhowean, or the bleachers at a football game. Anyone can occupy the throne; Jesse is cast in the role of a Power—and he plays well.

ESTHER FLORENCE HUNTER

PINCKNEYVILLE, ILLINOIS

BAINONIAN

Dimunitive Esther Hunter has never been able to convince an incoming freshman that she was not of his class. However, old students recognize her as a good athlete, a mathematical wizard, and an all-around good sport. Esther may be pretty small, but she'll surely bear watching in the next few years.

JEANNETTE MOORE

ALCOA, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Jeannette, with the twinkling brown eyes—you wouldn't think to look at her that she agreed with that idea of woman's place being in the home, but we've heard that she prefers a home of her own to a career of any kind. And our past associations with Jeannette show that her preferences are not all off the track. We congratulate the lucky man in advance.

EDWARD PHILIP VOGEL

CINCINNATI, OHIO

ATHENIAN

Quiet, strong, secretive, studious—that's the way Phil appears on the campus. Serious-minded? Yes. But those who would see the other side of Phil should peep in on a few of our Senior parties. We think, Phil, that when you're gone, M. C. will miss two songbirds from the cedars that crown the hilltop.

ROBERT WILLIAM WATKINS

WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA

ATHENIAN

You're almost certain to find "Farmer" in the center of things, football, moonshining, or mischief. He is one of those estimable people who can receive honors without becoming conceited. If, in the outside world, Farmer shows as much persistence and fight as he has here, success is assured him.

VIOLA VICTORY PETITT

JOHNSON CITY, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Voila is a combination of all good things found in one person. Poetry, art, philosophy, science, and psychology are meat and drink to her. Her talents and abilities, which are many and great, are combined with a gracious winsomeness which makes all those who know her love her. Viola has always been an exceptional student, both in scholastic attainments and in qualities of leadership. She is outstanding in all the extra curricular activities that she has participated in during her four years at Maryville.

FRANCES AUGUSTA McDEVITT

WALNUT, NORTH CAROLINA

THETA EPSILON

"Frank" is happy go lucky. She has a habit of chasing the blues away that would be an asset to most of us. She doesn't look the mathematical type, but that's her major, and she's quite successful in it. Those who have "Frank's" friendship are sure of a true and dependable friend.

WILLIAM THOMAS WHITMAN, JR.

SHEPHERDSVILLE, KENTUCKY

ATHENIAN

Here is a quiet sort of fellow for you, that is, unless he catches you talking in the library, then he's as hard-boiled as the next one. He'll make a good hard-working business man. He's been here four years—and has been true to the girl back home. A job and a girl—who wants more?

PAUL COOK DICKENSON

SLIPPERY ROCK, PENNSYLVANIA

ATHENIAN

It's really too bad that "Dick" is the staid bachelor type, for he would make some girl such a nice useful husband! He is a regular handyman with a hammer and paint brush. Everyone—especially the girls—appreciates "Dick's" services when there is anything to be fixed. Kind, obliging, an all-round student, who accepts A's with perfect equanimity—that's "Dick." He's going to be a great history professor some day.

EVELYN HENRIETTA SEEDORF

KANKAKEE, ILLINOIS

BAINONIAN

One feels an atmosphere of sincerity and dignity when in the presence of Evelyn. She is the kind of girl to whom a poet might look for inspiration. Her charming aristocratic manners and dramatic talents make her very popular. Without doubt Evelyn will some day bring honor to the Class of '30 by attaining the success that awaits her.

LUCILLE TRUNDLE

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

"Gentlemen prefer blondes"—that is if they can get them—but they would have to walk very fast to catch Lucille. Those who have only seen her as she comes and goes in her Ford have no idea what they have missed by not knowing her.

WILLIAM LEWIS HOPE

SOUTH BEND, INDIANA

ALPHA SIGMA

Perhaps no other student in Maryville has ever been subjected to as many nicknames as "Bill" Hope. "Missionary Hope" and "Hope of Maryville" are perhaps his most common sobriquets. We have appreciated having him with us, and his place on the campus, as well as on the football field, will be a hard one to fill.

IRA ROBERT MORRISON

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

ATHENIAN

Ira has conclusively disproved the theory that all Chicagoans are hold-up men. He has shown himself one of the best all-round men on the campus. Spiritually, he has all the elements that will make him a successful minister; scholastically, he ranks high; athletically, he knows just what to do with a football; and when it comes to moonshining, he needs no instruction.

VERA LORAINE BOYD

ROLLA, MISSOURI

BAINONIAN

We don't see how so much energy can be tucked into such a small parcel of humanity as Vera. Her energetic nature and charming personality make her liked by everyone. She has done her bit by singing in the Vesper Choir, and has shown her class loyalty on the soccer team.

MARY ELLA SULLIVAN

CLEVELAND, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Mary Ella let us know during our freshman year that she was here by lettering in basketball and being our Vice-President. Since then she has entered other college sports such as mountain hiking and moonshining, and she has done her part toward upholding these most sacred institutions. A truer and more loyal friend could not be found.

ALPHA SIGMA

Jimmie is our "ladies' man." Not a lady's man, but every lady's man; for which he is liked all the more. It has never been determined for certain whether his athletic prowess or his big dreamy brown eyes are responsible for this position, but we rather think it is just likeable Jimmie himself.

ALCOA, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

"Work is work and must be done,

CHARLES WILLIAM FELKNOR

MORRISTOWN, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

We seldom see Charles on the campus—unless we have a class with him. When we want to find him we go to Proffitt's. He achieves real masterpieces in the way of window decoration. And don't forget, either, that he designed the emblem for the Senior sweaters!

Art Editor Chilhowean (3, 4).

STILES MAXWELL McMILLAN

ACKWORTH, GEORGIA

ATHENIAN

"Bo" is pure gold that's never been mined. He's such a quick, self-effacing sort of chap that his unquestioned ability has never been topped. But he isn't disgruntled, he just keeps plugging along, steadily and serenely. And so we pay him this eulogy, belated and unsubstantial though it be—he is deserving of the finest.

BAINONIAN

MARY ESTHER BENNETT

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

The Class of 1930 gained something when Esther, at the end of her Freshman year, assisted in the instruction of lively young rural Americans. You only have to take one look at those brown eyes and that smile to understand why Maryville's disabled telephones are sometimes denied attention.

JAMES EDWARD SPROUSE

SPRINGFIELD, TENNESSEE

ALPHA SIGMA

It's going to take a good man to fill Ed's place next year. In fact, no one can take his place in our favor. Straightforward, gracious in manner, and capable in his undertakings, "Spruce" has always been a genuine man about the campus. He has never been known to worry, but keeps his sunny side up. We like him, and we'll remember him.

ARTHUR LEWIS SHAW

LUCERNE IN MAINE, MAINE

ALPHA SIGMA

"Shorty" is all that the name implies, but he is far from short of character. He has never said "no" in response to a request. Generous, frank, and willing, "Art" is a true friend to all and pal to few. It is a certainty that life will find him with a "half-Nelson" on the best of luck.

MARY LOUISE STANBERRY

AUSTIN, TEXAS

THETA EPSILON

Lou's natural brilliancy, her personality, and her line of gab always get her by. To aspire to be a doctor's wife is a high star to hitch one's wagon to, but "to aspire is to achieve", so we wish her luck and happiness in her chosen profession.

WILMA ZELLA ACTON

ALCOA, TENNESSEE

Surely Wilma may be said to be the most industrious member of our class. She is little and not at all loud, but the results of her industriousness are astounding. Some of us have not had the privilege of knowing her personally, because she lives in a neighboring town, but we have learned much by observation of her commendable qualities.

THOMAS WILSON WHITEHEAD

WALLAND, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

Most of us remember "Tom" as a Chemistry shark. There isn't much about that subject that he doesn't know, judging from his dignity as an assistant and the severity with which he red-penciled our note books. He was sympathetic, however, and at times he reveals a broad, whole-hearted smile which relieves his "get down to business" attitude toward getting a college education.

JAMES FRANKLIN ROBERSON

MOULTON, ALABAMA

ALPHA SIGMA

Ladies and Gentlemen, this is "Shorty," a smiling example of the type for whom was coined the expression "Tad's Little Gentleman." No one has been more faithful and conscientious about his work than "Shorty." He is dependable and willing in all that he undertakes, as is shown by his school activities.

ALMIRA EDITH ALEXANDER

RENO, ILLINOIS

BAINONIAN

Almira's chief characteristic is that which is so needful in this modern world of ours—efficiency. Our admiration is excited by the facility and thoroughness with which she gets things done. This is exemplified not only in her business relationships, but in other activities. Many of the attractive posters that have appeared on the campus are due to Almira's talents.

ELSIE IRENE JAMES

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

A small, quiet girl with ability, and to spare—that's Elsie. She doesn't live on the hill, but she keeps the library close company, which perseverance is probably a factor in her success as an English major. We wish you, as you deserve, success in all things. "Keep on keepin' on."

WILLIAM ORVILLE MAYER, JR.

CENTRALIA, PENNSYLVANIA

ATHENIAN

"Bill" is always in a good humor and pats you on the back to remind you that you should be peppy too. He would make a wonderful salesman, if persistence and insistence are special requirements in that line. We hope you'll always keep that ol' fight, "Bill." With it, you ought to be able to straighten out this old world of ours.

HUBERT CAMPBELL WELCH

CULLEOKA, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

Reserved to the point of taciturnity, Hubert offers great difficulty to the would-be intimate. Possibly the more timid would be frightened away by the shocking disarray of his coiffure, but to those who dare to brave such a peril there is the reward in the enjoyment of his keen mind and spicy humor.

SUE FRANCES TURNER

WOODLAWN, ALABAMA

THETA EPSILON

Plenty of vim, vigor and vitality, mingled with a "sophistication" (acquired with more or less effort) and a dramatic ability, sure to entertain—that's Frances. She has an easy way of stepping into people's minds and hearts. Everyone likes her and we shall miss her when the Class of '30 is gone.

SURGOINSVILLE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

For four years Maxine has worked with us and has proven herself as capable as she looks. A Home Ec. major is not to be sneezed at, and that is the task that Maxie set for herself and has now admirably accomplished.

Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4); East Tennessee Association (4); Chemistry Club (4); History Club (4).

FORREST I. ROBERTSON

RUTHERFORDTON, NORTH CAROLINA

ATHENIAN

Forrest is one of the few versatile people who can do everything well. If while traveling the collegiate road together, he has shown us one trait more than any other, it has been determination. This same determination was responsible for the defeat of practically all his opponents in debate, and we're sure that any future obstacles will likewise fall.

Program Secretary Athenian (2), President (4); Athenian Mid-Winter (2, 4); Winner French Oratorical Contest (3); Chairman Mid-Winter Committee (3, 4); Bainonian Mid-Winter (3); North Carolina Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Editor (3); Spanish Club (1); Law Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Vice-President (2), President (3), Editor (4); Vesper Choir (2, 3, 4); Pi Kappa Delta (1, 2, 3, 4), Vice-President (3); President (4); Order of Oratory and Debate, Degree of Special Distinction; College Players (2, 3); Freshman Debate (1); Varsity Debate (2, 3, 4); College Orator (3, 4); Class Baseball (1, 2); Theta Alpha Phi (3, 4), Treasurer (4); Highland Echo Staff (3, 4); Graduate in Expression (3).

WRIGHT WILSON FROST

SHELBYVILLE, TENNESSEE

ALPHA SIGMA

If you've been around much at Maryville, you've heard someone remark about the brilliancy and the arguing capacity of our "Jack" Frost. Some reputation he has! The realm of mathematics holds no fear for him. Even when he is working hardest, he has in store a broad, friendly smile that makes itself known at the slightest provocation.

Bryson College (1); Secretary Bryson Debate Club (1); Varsity Debate (2, 4); University of Tennessee Correspondence School (3); Middle Tennessee Club (2, 4); Censor Alpha Sigma (4); Pi Kappa Delta (2, 3, 4).

ALICE OTHELDA WOODS

GREENBACK, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

The infectious smile that has radiated to us all from the choir during chapel for the past four years has come from none other than Alice. Too, this smile seems to have affected several "hymns" in a peculiar way! Like a goat feasting on a broken mirror, Alice says "They are indeed food for reflection." Seriously, Alice is a diligent student, a good and loyal friend, and—but what more would one ask? May your smile never fade, and may fortune be good to you.

Vesper Choir (2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (2).

GLADYS GRAHAM

NEW MARKET, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

If anyone ever wants a cheerful cooperator they need look no further, for no one is more willing to do her part than Gladys, no matter how hard the task. She has successfully mastered dramatics and will be sure to play a major part on the stage where most of us are only stage hands.

East Tennessee State Teachers College (3); Expression (1, 2, 4); Vice-President Jefferson County Club (1); Maryville College Players (4).

ERNEST LAFAYETTE ROSS

CHARLESTON, TENNESSEE

ATHENIAN

Ernest is a truly brave son of our Alma Mater. He doesn't even flinch at Catalogy, and is planning to be one of the world's leading M. D.'s very soon. Those who work quietly and purposefully usually win their way. Good luck, Ernest, we're looking forward to your debut in the medical world.

Class Football (1); Freshman Debate (1); Class Secretary (3); Secretary Athenian (4).

HORACE DEWEY MANN

BUFORD, GEORGIA

ATHENIAN

Dewey has not taken a very strenuous part in extra-curricular activities, but he makes up amply for that by his interest in mathematics. If medals were offered for proficiency in this subject (as might well be the case) Dewey would be one of the first in line.

MAIE VIRGINIA REPASS

WASHINGTON COLLEGE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

In Maie we find the very rare combination of the artist and mathematician. Anyone would envy her ability to be both practical and artistic. Maie, we have not failed to see and commend your diligence while in these halls of learning and we wish you much success and happiness.

Art Club (2, 3, 4), Secretary-Treasurer (4); East Tennessee Association (4).

HELENE ELIZABETH SCROGGIN

CENTER, ALABAMA

THETA EPSILON

To one who does not know her Helene might seem quiet and reserved. Upon more intimate acquaintance, one discovers in her the capability of creating some rare bits of humor and of saying the proper thing at the proper time. Helene's pleasing personality is just the asset needed to acquire friends, and once a friend, she is always a friend.

Middle Tennessee State Teachers' College (1, 2); Alabama Club (3, 4); Home Economics Club (4).

HOWARD WILBUR SCHLEMAN

BEREA, OHIO

ALPHA SIGMA

To many, Howard Schleman is just that curly-headed boy who plays the saxaphone so masterfully. However, those who have had the good fortune to know him intimately, realize that more than that, he is a real fellow, and we regret that he could not have spent his entire four years here with us.

Baldwin Wallace College (1, 2); College Band (3, 4); College Orchestra (3, 4); Ohio Club (3, 4).

FAITH TAYLOR

OLIVER SPRINGS, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Clara Bow—minus the henna. Combine beauty and a friendly personality and the result will be Faith—a dandy good sport. Faith has helped to make two of our dramatic productions a success this year, and we presume that in the future she will make successes of other things besides plays.

College Players (4), Stage Manager (4); East Tennessee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); P. K. Club (2); Spanish Club (1, 2, 3); Art Club (1, 2, 3, 4); French Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Bainonian Sergeant-at-Arms (2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Soccer (1, 2, 3); Class Volleyball (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Baseball (1, 2, 3, 4); Daisy Chain (3); Graduate in Expression (4); Athenian Mid-Winter (4).

ALICE ELIZABETH MYERS

SIGNAL MOUNTAIN, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

A sample of the dignity and distinction of the Class of '30—that's Elizabeth. Many have been the times we have enjoyed the music that only Elizabeth can make in that Elizabethan way. When you get to be on the concert stage, remember we are still all for you.

Chattanooga Club (1, 3); Bainonian Critic (3); College Orchestra (1, 3, 4); Violin Ensemble (1, 3, 4).

CORA LOUISE CARSON

TELFORD, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Just take a look at her picture, then at her list of honors. Now if we could just get her personality down here, you would readily understand why Louise has been active in every phase of college life from "moonshining" to being President of Y. W., and is prepared to take successfully a big place in life.

May Day Attendant (2); Chemistry Club (2, 3, 4), Editor (2), Program Secretary (3), Vice-President (4); Chemistry Assistant (2, 3, 4); Biology Assistant (3); Student Council (3, 4); Lambda Tau Psi (4); Art Club (4); East Tennessee Association (4); Y. W. and Y. M. Christmas Play (2, 4); Y. W. C. A. President (4); Blue Ridge Delegate (3); Daisy Chain (3); Publicity Chairman Bainonian (3).

MARY ELIZABETH DEADERICK

KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

"Mary Lib" has more original ideas in a week than the most of us have in a month. Her executive ability and her numerous talents make her a leader on the campus whose influence is splendid and fine, for she combines the ability to dream and to do. We have found in her the beauty of life and character that claims our love and esteem and admiration. Mary Lib is a thoroughbred.

Vice-President Y. W. C. A. (4); Bainonian Mid-Winter (4); Student Council (4); Knoxville Club (1, 2, 3, 4), President (3); Girls' Glee Club (3, 4), Business Manager (4); Inter-Racial Commission (4); Vesper Choir (3, 4); Lambda Tau Psi (4), Chairman Program Committee and Member of Executive Committee (4); Honor Roll (3).

HILDA GRACE FARNHAM

HARRIMAN, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Hilda's nickname, "Happy", has been particularly well chosen, for she has a pleasing disposition which has endeared her to her many friends. "Happy's" attention is so divided between her two preferred subjects that we cannot predict whether she will become a brilliant mathematician or will unlock some psychological secret. Probably both.

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4); Lambda Tau Psi (4).

EPSIE ROBERTA HICKMAN

GREEN POND, ALABAMA

BAINONIAN

When do we like Roberta best—when she takes in our pennies and nickels over the "Y" store counter, or when she plays so excellently on the stage, or reads to us the madcap pranks of some Tom Sawyer or Penrod, or when she laughs merrily and is just Roberta? The problem is so hard—let's just give up and say we like her lots—anytime, anywhere.

Vice-President Bainonian (4); Alabama Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4), Social Secretary (3); Expression Graduate (3); College Players (3); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (2, 3, 4); Athenian Mid-Winter (2, 4); Theta Alpha Phi (4).

ALICE CORDELIA RHEA

SHEPHERDSVILLE, KENTUCKY

BAINONIAN

Alice is the ideal type of college girl who combines intelligence, good looks, and a pleasing personality. During her college career she has found time for many activities including dramatics and debate. We will always remember her irresistible charm as the heroine in "The Poor Nut." With her great versatility we can predict succees for her in any field.

Kentucky Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Editor (1, 3), President (2), Vice-President (4); Freshman Debate (1); Pi Kappa Delta (1, 2, 3, 4), Treasurer (2); Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (2); Varsity Debate (2); Student Council (3); College Players (3); Expression Graduate (3); Athenian Mid-Winter (3); Stage Manager Bainonian Mid-Winter (4); Daisy Chain (3); Publicity Chairman Bainonian (4); Honor Roll (1, 2); French Club (3).

MARGARET ELIZABETH HAYNIE

WEST ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

THETA EPSILON

Margaret is another outstanding member of the Class of '30. Her accomplishments in scholarship, in athletics, and in Expression all make us sit up and blink at her versatility. She has done her part in all college activities. With her ability to do, and to do well whatever she undertakes, we know that she will succeed.

Theta Epsilon Treasurer (3), Acting President (4); Orchestra (2, 3); Chemistry Assistant (3); Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (4); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4); Tennis Team (2, 3); Expression Graduate (4); College Players (3); North Carolina Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Vice-President (4); Girls' Athletics—300 points (2), 400 points (3); Alpha Sigma Mid-Winter (4).

OLIVE ELIZABETH CLOPTON

HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA

BAINONIAN

Olive has had a hard time trying to live down the reputation established by former Cloptons, but she's all right. Just to prove that we like her we elected her as Maryville's "Best All-round Sport." Olive is also one of the biggest reasons why we have girls' athletics at Maryville.

Alabama Club (1, 2, 3, 4), Secretary-Treasurer (2); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4); "M" Club (2, 3); Class Athletics (2, 3, 4); Captain Class Soccer (2); Manager Class Basketball (3); Tennis Team (2, 3); Varsity Basketball Squad (1).

DICKSIE LEE LEWIS

SILOAM SPRINGS, ARKANSAS

Dicksie Lee knows what every girl should know—how to cook. The Seniors, remembering the delicious party refreshments, can testify to that. Her culinary ability and her ever present sense of humor is a combination that would please any man. She seems to thoroughly enjoy life and has one of those contagious laughs which makes the world laugh with her.

Vesper Choir (2, 3, 4); Chattanooga Club (1, 2); Home Economics (2, 3, 4).

AGNES KATHLEEN McGUIRE

WHITE PINE, TENNESSEE

BAINONIAN

Whether there is work to be done or fun to be made, Agnes furnishes her supply—a true blue member of the Class of '30. There's something very likeable about her which has won her many friends at Maryville. She possesses unusual musical talent, and uses it, much to the enjoyment of her classmates and friends. We wish you much happiness, Agnes.

East Tennessee Club (4); Jefferson County Club (1); Vesper Choir (2, 3); College Orchestra (2, 3, 4); Saxaphone Sextette (3, 4); Nu Gamma Sigma Leader (2); Bainonian Secretary (4).

ELIZABETH CHRISTINE HUNNICUTT

MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

THETA EPSILON

Christine is the kind of girl whose photograph might be in a book entitled, "The Quest of the Beautiful." She is quite a talented singer, and we are glad that we shall not be absolutely separated from her—for she has taken the first steps in becoming as popular with radio audiences as she has been at Maryville.

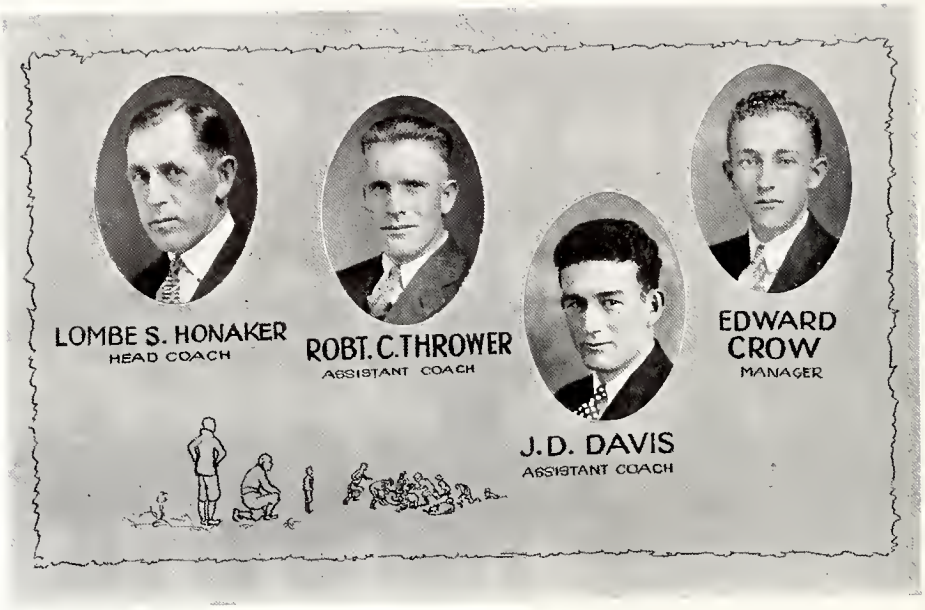
Coaching Staff



Maryville athletics during the past eight years have been exceptional for a college of its size. This has been due directly to the calibre of her coaching staff. Head coach, Lombe Scott Honaker, known to all Maryvillians as "Maryville's Gray-Haired Man of Destiny," has given the college a record to be proud of in every line of sport. A city paper says of him: "Few athletic coaches have hung up a more brilliant record than Honaker, and he stands out as one of the most successful mentors in collegiate athletics."

But everyone needs help and both Coach Honaker and Maryville are fortunate to have Bob Thrower with them as assistant coach. Besides being an all-round athlete, Bob is the greatest football man Maryville ever had and his presence is indispensable to good teams at M. C.

We also had J. D. Davis with us this year to take some of the load off Coach Honaker's shoulders and J. D. had his share in producing this year's teams.

And, of course, we had to have "Brute" Crow with us as manager. Brute has been an all-round flunky now for three years and he's just about the best there is, too.

CHEER LEADERS

GILMORE PEIRCE, Captain EDRIS

FIRST TEAM

IRA MORRISON
Fullback

Morrison was the only veteran left in the backfield, and this was quite a responsibility in itself. "Doc" responded by giving us the brand of football which caused him to be spoken of as one of the best defensive backs ever to don a Maryville College uniform. When line plunging of a superlative class is required "Doc" is right there with the pigskin.

LOWELL McDONALD
Captain
Guard

A sturdy linesman who withstood the attacks of the foe like a rock wall, and was the cause of the collapse of many a line—McDonald. Dependable, gritty, and a hard worker, he always had the welfare of his team at heart, and it is largely because of these very qualities that we all admire and honor "Captain McDonald."

MILLARD TOLLIVER
Guard

From the mountains of Kentucky, the land of feuds, comes Tolliver. Perhaps that accounts for his fighting spirit. Some of his friends say that he has gentle brown eyes, but some of his gridiron foes, looking at them at rather close range, would describe them otherwise. At any rate, this huge gridster has shown the goods and will probably be heard from again in times to come.

ROBERT WATKINS
Center

"Farmer" has an exceptionally large stock of grit, courage, and fight in his makeup. No plays were run over "Farmer." He isn't so large but he frequently is heard from. Watkins was a mountain of strength in the line and not only played his position superbly but had a great share in keeping up the morale of his teammates.

LEWIS REED
End

This stocky, well-built youth has been known to most of us for his prowess in basketball, but "Louie" proved this year that he could also partake in the noble pigskin pastime Reed didn't go out until the last of the season last year, but he has worked hard this year. Although he was out a part of the season due to injuries, he always showed up well when called upon.

LEA CALLAWAY
Halfback

Outstanding work in nearly every game is the record of this big Sophomore halfback. Much of the responsibility of the backfield work rested upon his broad shoulders—whether it was in punting, passing, or carrying the ball, Lea was there doing his share creditably and brilliantly. As Callaway has two years yet, he should develop into an exceptional backfield man.

LYMAN BONDS
Halfback

Bonds has been with us before, so we knew what to expect when he got fairly started. His terrific driving power and determination to gain at any cost make him the great backfield man that he is. When gains through the line were made, Bonds went through for his part of them.

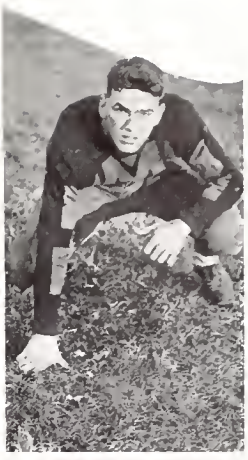
We are hoping he will be with the "Scots" another year or two.

JOHN WHITE
End

"Sleepy" White is another all-round man. Although he played well at center it was after he was shifted to end that he showed his best syle. He is good on defense, a sure tackler, and remarkably good at receiving passes As this year was his first try at end we are predicting great things for him.

RALPH CHERRY
End

Long, lanky, and yet substantial—that's an ideal end, and that's Cherry. His extended anatomy including those long arms was quite the thing on the latter end of a pass and it also worked well in breaking up the enemies aspirations along the line of aerial attack. This was Ralph's last year with the "Scotties" and he played it nobly.



MAURICE CARPER
Tackle

"Judge's" great framework makes him rank very highly as a human battering ram. Some say that he has been neglecting his judicial duties, for he no longer resides on the bench, but is in the thick of the battle doing his best for the Highlanders. He was a steady, consistent player who could be depended upon. This year was Carper's last, and his shoes will be hard to fill.

CLIFFORD OVERLY
Tackle

Some people call him "Tub" and others call him "Train." All agree that he is big, and all agree that he can play football.

Underneath a jovial and easy-going disposition there lurks a determination and a fighting quality which make him the valuable man he is.

"Pee Wee" showed his football ability by lettering last year and as he has two more to go we are expecting great things of him.

TOM CASH
Tackle

Tom is a little light for a linesman, but he makes up for it in aggressiveness and speed. During the season he played both at guard and at tackle. He got across the line in a minimum amount of time and is speedy when it comes to charging. Truly he is another of our worthy "Scotties" of whom we are proud.

JOE WOODARD
Halfback

Joe is a combination of good material for a star halfback. He has the brawn, the brains, and the backbone for his position. When he begins romping along, the opposing team always finds it a real problem to stop him. Woodard proved his worth by making his letter his first season out, and he should go far in his three remaining years.

BLUNDON FERGUSON
Center

This was Ferguson's second year but his development was unusually rapid. In the Vanderbilt game and especially in the Emory and Henry game, Ferguson showed that he was capable of meeting the strongest opposition. Blundon is a real tackler and is reliable on defense. His work during the latter part of the season showed us the stuff he is made of and we are counting on him this next year.

DONALD BENN

Benn comes to us from Florida where they really play football. This is his first year with us but he will be there fighting for the Orange and Garnet again next year. He is small but endowed with an abundant supply of that old fighting spirit which makes a valuable player. In the Kentucky State and Vanderbilt games he was especially strong.

WILLIAM HOPE
Tackle

For three years "Missionary Bill" has given his all for old Maryville and this was his last and best year. We are going to miss him next year. "Bill" was a rampart of power and drive in the Highlander wall in every game, and once the lust of battle was enkindled in his soul, the opposing linesmen had just cause to fear.

WELCH BOWMAN
Fullback

Probably the thing the fans noticed most about Bowman besides his blonde, curly hair, was his pretty passing. This knack, together with his kicking ability, his weight and his size, promise to make him a most valuable performer before many seasons have passed. Bowman has just finished his first year, so we are expecting much service from him at a later date.

JOHN TAGGART
Quarterback

For four years John has been doing good work on the football squad. This year he indeed struck his stride and earned his letter as quarterback.

Who will soon forget his broken field running at Lenoir-Rhyne or his performance in the terrific Vandy game where he showed his ability as a heady general?

John's prowess on the cinder path showed up in football, for he was one of the fastest men on the team.

CARL STOREY
Captain-Elect
Guard

Carl was a source of solid strength to the Highlander line this year. Time after time he broke through and nailed the enemy ball-carrier for a loss.

No one has labored more strenuously for the success of the Orange and Garnet on the gridiron than has Carl in the past few years, and this is what makes him well worthy of the honor of captain on the next year's eleven.

Football Squad

Back Row: R. Thrower, J. Davis, D. Benn, I. Morrison, R. Teffeteller, L. Callaway, W. Bowman, J. Woodard, J. Taggart, W. Smith, G. Benn, R. Owen, L. Bonds, Honaker (Coach).

Middle Row: E. Crow (Manager), R. Watkins, T. Cash, C. Overly, W. Hope, R. Cherry, L. McDonald (Captain), M. Carper, B. Ferguson, M. Tolliver, L. Reed, C. Storey, J. White.

The 1929 football season has been a notable one for the Maryville College Highlanders. The season began with a 27-9 victory over our old rivals, Tennessee Wesleyan. This game will be remembered as the first to be played under the new lighting system, which had just been installed.

After the next seven battles the Highlanders had triumphed over King, Tennessee Teachers, Lenoir-Rhyne and Carson-Newman. One of the other games was a scoreless tie with Milligan, and the remaining defeats were at the hands of the Southern Conference Teams, Kentucky and Vanderbilt.

The Highlanders then journeyed to Emory and Henry to decide which team would win the conference title. The Scots were finally defeated after fighting doggedly on a mud-covered field with the snow falling all during the game.

Although we are looking forward to a good team next fall, there are five of our best players leaving us. These men are Hope, Carper, Cherry, Taggart, and Morrison. Their places will be hard to fill, but their records will remain a spur to the greater efforts of those who follow.

Winning eleven out of nineteen games played this season, Coach Honaker's quintet displayed the dash and fire that characterize the basketball teams turned out by the best coach in the South. By far the best home game of the season was the Maryville-Milligan fracas in which the Highlanders played as only the wearers of the Orange and Garnet can. Next season we are going to miss Captain Waddell, "Louie" Reed, and Ralph Cherry. The record for the season is given below:

Lombe Scott Honaker

Coach

Coach Honaker's basketball teams are always good, and this year was no exception. With several lettermen back Coach was able to weld together a fast aggregation which shone well either on offense or defense. They played class "A" ball all season.

Kemp Davis

Captain-Elect
Forward

Kemp is that elusive bit of lightning who has a knack of slipping away from the defense and caging a neat goal. No matter how hard he fell he was always still fighting. Kemp led the team in scoring and also proved his worth as an efficient manager.

Lewis Reed

Guard

"Louie" is without question one of the best guards Maryville has ever had. This ex-captain has a way of disappointing many an opposing forward's ambitions. His record for the season is, as usual, satisfactory in every way.

Captain Ralph Waddell

Center

"Captain Waddell" seems a bit formal but "Suitcase" has shown us the past season that he was worthy of his place. His uncanny ability in shooting and his extended reach and elongated anatomy have made him a valuable asset, and his place is going to be hard to fill.

John Stone White

Forward

Although we still remember his relation to another famous Maryville athlete, White has now made a name and a place for himself. He could always be depended upon when it was essential that an extra score or two be chalked up.

Joe Woodard

Forward

Joe is proving to be a valuable addition to our athletic Scotties. Playing at center and at guard he showed remarkable versatility as an all-round player and many of our points were due to his trick of rushing through for a basket before the opposing team knew he was in the game.

Ralph Cherry

Guard

Ralph has been working steadily at basketball in the past seasons and this year he found his regular place on the team. Much of the credit for the strong defense and the good team work goes to his calm and unruffled performance.

Baseball Squad

Back Row: B. Ferguson, J. White, L. Nick, C. Brashear, M. Tolliver, J. Johnson, L. McCulloch.
Front Row: Edward Crow, Manager; J. Davis, E. Gabbard, Co-Captain; H. Bird, Co-Captain, M. Delaney, E. Blazer, Honaker, Coach.

The interest which Maryville men have in the national pastime was again shown very early in the Spring by the large number of potential big-leaguers who answered Coach Honaker's call. From these men were selected and developed the players who made up the 1929 Highlander nine.

The team was captained by Gabbard and Bird. Gabbard was pitching his last year for Maryville, and he pitched the brand of baseball which brought him offers from big league clubs. Bird, who was general when Gabbard was not on the diamond, also led the hitters for the season.

Eighteen games were played during the season, of which there were thirteen won and five lost.

The track men of 1929 made up one of the strongest teams which Maryville has developed. One defeat, the meet with Tennessee, is all that is recorded against the Orange and Garnet. In the Conference Tournament the Conference champions amassed a score well over the combined score of all their competitors. The team owed much to the coaching of Bob Thrower and the management of "Shorty" Shaw.

Bainonian Literary Society

When "Bainonian Yacht" set sail on Bainonian's opening night in September, 1929, it was beginning the fifty-fifth year of the Society's travels. Since 1875, this largest and oldest girls' literary society on the Hill has been making steady, dependable progress. Bainonian means "Traveler," and the girls who have lined up with Bainonian have been possessed with those qualities that make for successful journeys.

Bainonian's opening week was crowded with spectacular events which were original, novel, and entertaining, giving fresh evidence of the careful planning, hard thinking, enthusiasm, zest for living, and executive ability that are Bainonian characteristics.

The Society affords opportunities for the formation of valuable and lasting friendships. The old grads who come back can testify that Bainonian "meant so much!"

"Bainonian, we give our hearts to thee."

Athenian Literary Society

The Athenian Literary Society has endeavored during the past year to follow faithfully the principles established by its founders in 1868. Under the leadership of efficient officers the Society has enjoyed a very successful year. There has been excellent cooperation by all the members for the advancement of Athenian.

"The Cardinal," a drama of fifteenth century Rome, was presented by Athenian as its mid-winter program, and proved an eminent success. Much credit is due to the actors, director, and workers for their unfailing cooperation in producing the play.

The following men were elected as officers for the third term, too late for their photographs to be in the Chilhowean: President,W. T. Whitman, Jr.; Vice-President, Philip Vogel; Recording Secretary, Edwin Shelley; Program Secretaries, Lynn Rankin and Ira Morrison; Critics, Allen Foreman, Hubert Welsh; Editor, Aubrey Bradshaw; Sergeant-at-Arms, Tom Cooper.

Theta Epsilon Literary Society

In 1894, Theta Epsilon was founded. Since then it has been steadily growing, and this year of 1929-30 has been most successful, for, from the opening week, which went over with a boom, each succeeding week has brought fresh interest and enthusiasm. Over a hundred girls belong to this society.

We feel quite proud of our talent as displayed in the mid-winter, "Tilly of Bloomsbury." It was, indeed, something of an event in Theta's year.

May the girls who remain to carry on the work maintain the high standards and ideals of friendship established by former members.

Alpha Sigma Literary Society

Alpha Sigma of the year 1929-30 has been the same old Alpha Sigma of high ideals, big accomplishments, and wonderful fellowship that has characterized the Society from its foundation. The weekly programs from the beginning of the year have shown real work and cooperation between the officers and members of the Society.

Again this year the majority of the varsity debaters and the college extemporaneous speaker have been Alpha Sigmas. The President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Y. M. C. A., the Business Managers of the Chilhowean and Highland Echo, and other campus leaders have been Alpha Sigmas. In fact, we have been well represented in every activity in college, including athletics.

"Lilac Time" was the mid-winter this year and was distinguished by excellent dramatic ability and work on the part of all the cast—fully maintaining the high standards set by Alpha Sigma mid-winters of past years.

Without doubt, memories of Alpha Sigma will linger long in the minds of those brothers who are leaving us this spring through graduation, and we trust these memories will be something of an inspiration for them to do big things in the world.

The "Y" and Its Work During the Year

The Y. M. C. A. began its year last fall with a joint retreat of the Young Men's and Young Women's Associations at Kinzel Springs on the edge of the Smokies. There the Officers and Cabinet spent two days discussing and planning the work for the year. Arriving back on the campus in time to welcome the incoming students, the "Y" men immediately began to make the Association known and appreciated. Although composed largely of inexperienced men, the cabinet has functioned unusually well, each fellow realizing and assuming his part of the responsibility and work. It is felt that the Y. M. C. A. has been a real factor in supplying vital inspiration that has found expression in a better type of college life, and in stimulating intelligent thought on current problems.

The "Y" has also procured several speakers for the student body, men of high calibre, who have left lasting impressions on the campus. The regular weekly meetings allowed all to take part in the programs, and these meetings have been more largely attended than ever before. Thus, through the sponsorship of a well-proportioned program of athletics, religious meetings, song services, social gatherings, and general good fellowship, we have endeavored to bring the students to a fuller conception and understanding of the Christian life everywhere.

"Y" Activities

As is well known, the purpose of the Association is Physical, Mental, and Spiritual development; accordingly, the year's program has included those three phases of work. The "Y" has sponsored inter-class sports of all kinds, including football, basketball, track, and baseball—awarding a cup to the class making the highest pointage in all. In addition, the fall cross-country run was a feature of the year. A Barnwarmin' on Thanksgiving night, pageants, two fellowship banquets with the University of Tennessee, the Lyceum Course, a circus, mountain hikes—all of these activities have been evidences of the presence of the Christian Associations on the Hill.

Y. W C. A.'s are influential the world over, and our organization here on the Hill is just a unit of that entire system. Everywhere Y. W. stands for the same high ideal for which it was founded, that of true Christian living. In the Christian living

Y stands for the Youth of the college, both men and women, for their standards, advancement, and inter-relationships.

W stands for the Women of the college, and for their welfare all through their college life. Welfare of the new girls is provided for throug'i the "Big and Little Sister" movement, Nu Gamma groups, and receptions.

C stands for Christ whose deeds and right living are goals for every girl to strive for. In following the Christian road, Y. W. plans Sunday afternoon devotional services and daily prayer meetings.

A stands for the Associations that are made while in college. These associations are varied and cover many activities such as athletics and Blue Ridge delegates through Y. Store proceeds. The biggest activity underway at present is the preparations for the new Y. W. building. When this goal has been reached, Y. W. activities will be furthered to a great extent.

"Little Queener"

Now that we have come to the end we close our book with the picture of this little moonbeam! His name is George Clinton Queener. Some day he will be a big Maryville "Moonshiner." The only kind of "Moonshine" he is acquainted with now is that which he sees thru tear dimmed eyes out of the window at night. Walking with George under the beams of a cold, yellow moon is also a different kind of "moonshine"—but it's all in "moonshining."
